Required Paperwork:

All Vendors must obtain a Town of Floyd Business License. (Free for farmers)
 Please contact Kayla Cox at 540-745-2565 or toflloyd@swva.net.

All vendors must provide Sustain Floyd with a copy of their business license at the beginning of the 2018 season.
 SustainFloyd is then required to submit a list of all Market vendors to the Town of Floyd.

If applicable to the products that you sell, we require copies of the following:

	Attached	Pending	Not Applicable
USDA Organic Certification
Please note: Legally, produce cannot be labeled as “organic” if the farm is not USDA Certified Organic. However, if you sell < $5000 gross, you may legally label your produce as “organic” without certification, but not “certified organic”. To do so, you must meet all of the Organic standards AND file an affidavit with the USDA, and provide SF with a copy of such.
VDACS Kitchen Certification
VDACS Value-Added Food Certification (ie low-acid foods)
Proof that your food products are exempt from VDACS inspection
VDH Temporary Event Permit
USDA Meat Processing Facility Used

All products must be grown, produced, or originate from Floyd County or within a 100 mile radius.

Will all the products sold originate at your farm or facility? _____ yes _____ no

If not, please explain:

The Floyd Farmers Market is a program of SustainFloyd, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to developing ideas that will support the next generation of our rural community, while preserving Floyd's local traditions and history.
